Donations of Glass, Periodicals, Books and other non-monetary items

Print a copy of this page. Make sure that this form accompanies your donation to receive proper credit. We ask that you also provide an approximate value of the items that make up the donation. A member of the Acquisitions Committee will sign the document as your receipt for the donation. You will need to consult with your accountant or tax attorney to determine whether or not this contribution is tax deductible for you. Of course, anonymous donations are also gratefully accepted.
